

Fire in bungalow kills man in Laval

Police are investigating the cause of a fire in Laval early yesterday that killed a 36-year-old man.

Firefighters found Paul Chevrier's body on the floor near the front door of his bungalow in the Fabreville district, said Sgt. Réjean Simard of Laval police.

"We don't have the exact cause, but we believe the fire was accidental, not criminal," Simard said.

Two constables tried to enter the burning house on Laberge St., but were forced back by the heat. Chevrier lived alone.

The blaze broke out about 4 a.m.
