FORE GROUP, INC. and FOTIS DULOS : SEPTEMBER 17, 2019

DEFENDANTS’ OBJECTION TO REQUESTS FOR PRODUCTION

The defendants, Fore Group, Inc. and Fotis Dulos (collectively, the “Defendants”), through their undersigned counsel, hereby object to certain of the requests for production included in the plaintiff’s requests for production of documents dated July 19, 2019. Certain of the requests are objectionable as follows:

4. Copies of individual financial statements submitted to the Court in the divorce action.

OBJECTION – The Defendants object to this request on the grounds that it is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. The Defendants further object to this request on the grounds that it seeks materials that are confidential and sealed in the divorce case.

5. Copies of all documentation from January 1, 2017 supporting any expense reimbursements of Fore Group to Fotis Dulos individually.

OBJECTION – The Defendants object to this request on the grounds that it is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

7. Copies of records reflecting the source of funds paid to criminal attorneys and private investigator.

OBJECTION – The Defendants object to this request on the grounds that it is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Defendants further object to this request on the grounds that it seeks documents covered by the attorney-client privilege and/or the work product doctrine.

8. Copies of any and all documents given to criminal attorneys related to your Fidelity retirement account.

OBJECTION – The Defendants object to this request on the grounds that it is not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Defendants further object to this request on the grounds that it seeks documents covered by the attorney-client privilege and/or the work product doctrine.
